

Show Sponsors Return in a Big Way
The cars are the stars. But wait, there's more!

For Immediate Release

Portland, Ore., Feb. 15, 2022 – It's the largest automotive showroom in Portland, with over hundreds of the finest vehicles from around the globe to view and evaluate, but what makes the Portland International Auto Show (PIAS) a must-attend event goes beyond the cars. "And we can thank our sponsors for that," said Greg Remensperger, executive vice president of the Metro Portland New Car Dealers Association, organizers of the PIAS.

"We're humbled by the support of our sponsors and vendors, without whom, we'd be hard-pressed to produce the auto show," said Remensperger. "Especially after the last two years, we see their support as confidence in both the show and the automakers, and hope show visitors will enjoy their feature activities, and support their businesses."
